This is UNEVALUATED Information

1. At 1100 hours on 19 October two Chinese Communist military Vehicles were in the vicinity of the Amoy Harbor Quarantine Office near the Matsu (1265/4371) pier.
2. At 0900 hours on 17 October three Chinese Communist tanks and six military vehicles were moving from Pier No. 6 on Luchiang (7052/3068) Road in the direction of Hsiakang (0633/3263). Each vehicle towed an artillery piece.
3. The former Huang Chia Tu (7806/1367/3256) pier in Kulanghsu had been repaired and reserved for military use. The pier had formerly been slanted but was broken down and rebuilt into a pier 60 feet long, 17 feet wide, and about 8 feet above the water. The pier was built of rock and concrete and was guarded by a soldier 24 hours a day. Civilian vessels were prohibited from the area and no military vessels were observed at the pier during the daytime.
4. The former Pier No. 1 in Amoy had been torn down and a new pier designated Pier No. 1 was constructed in the same area. Piers No. 2, 3, and 4 were being expanded to a length of 30 feet and a width of 10 feet. Rocks, stones, and cement were used in the new construction. Pier No. 9, the Post Office pier, the Customs pier, the Matsu pier, and other piers along the waterfront were unchanged. A sketch of the piers is shown below.
5. Warehouses for military stores were located on the top of Nanp'ut'o (0589/2528/7094) hill. In the city area, there were warehouse at the T'ai Ku (1132/0657) pier and at the foot of Hut'ou (5706/7333) hill.
